Being a first time traveler I found the task of choosing a travel company from the list of 100s currently available to be daunting. Everyone I spoke to had a different suggestion and different view on every company but looking through highway hypodermics I could see how highly rated TaleMed was and put it on my list of agencies to check out.

I will begin travel nursing next month & have been inquiring with various companies because I have to start traveling in a particular part of the country due to family issues there. A talemed recruiter contacted me by email with some details about 2 positions in my area of interest. I attempted to call her last week & was told that she was on the phone and would call me right back. Not only
